Contents

Editorial

Martin Hundt: The History of the Second MEGA.
Laudation for Rolf Dlubek and Richard Sperl

Siegfried Scheibe: The Editorial Principles of the MEGA.
Dedication to the Editor, Richard Sperl, on his 70th Birthday

Rolf Dlubek: The Edition of the MEGA-Correspondence. Understanding the Meaning of the MEGA on the Threshold of the 21st Century

Richard Sperl: The Problem of the Double-Authorship of the MEGA – Political-Ideological Programmatic or an Editorial Necessity?

Elena Aržanova: The Thematical Departments in the Marx-Engels-
Institute under the Direction of Rjazanov and Adoratskij and their Use in the First and Second MEGA

Svetlana Gavrilëenko: The Historical Origins of Marx’s
Revelations of the diplomatic history of the 18th century

Renate Merkel-Melis: Who wrote the Article „Juristen-Sozialismus“?
Problems of the Proof of Authorship in Editing
Volume I/31 of the MEGA

Carl-Erich Vollgraf: Engels, Liebknecht, Bernstein? The Question of Who Announced the first Printing-Composition of Volume III of Das Kapital

Roberto Fineschi, Rolf Hecker: Carlo Caffiero’s Interpretation of Marx’s Le Capital

Heinrich Gemkow: Max Oppenheim - An Acquaintence of Marx at Karlbad and Engels’ Pen-Partner

Ursula Herrmann: Julie Bebel and Friedrich Engels. Insights