

Contents

Editorial	5
Carl-Erich Vollgraf: Again the 6-Volume-Plan? On the Tenuity of a Legend	7
Ehrenfried and Ulrike Galander: The London Notebooks – A Preliminary Plan for Their Development	22
Klaus-Dieter Block: On the Contents of the Planned Volumes by Marx on Landed Property, Wage Labour, the State, and Foreign Trade and the Global Market	28
Seongjin Jeong: Marx's Crisis Theory as a Theory of World Market Crisis	37
Fritz Fiehler: The Self-Structuring of Capital. On the Architecture of Capital in the second book	78
Dieter Wolf: On the Architectonics of the Three Volumes of Capital	95
César Ruiz Sanjuán: The Significance of Dialectical Portrayal in Marx's Critique of Political Economy	129
Ryuji Sasaki, Kohei Saito: Abstract Labour and the Metabolism between Man and nature	150
Xu Yang, Zhu Yi: A Glimpse at China's Research on Marx's 6-Volume-Plan	169
Zhou Si Chen: Wan mao in – The Mandarin in Capital	177
Götz Langkau: The "Ford-Project" of the IISG (1959–1965)	189
Vesa Oittinnen: Answer to Wolfgang Eckhardt's Comments in the Beiträgen zur Marx-Engels-Forschung. Neue Folge 2012	211
Erhard Kiehnbaum: Karl Marx's Article „Electoral Corruption in England“ (1859). A Handout to the Index of Persons in MEW 13	215
Wladislaw Hedeler: Karl Schmückle: Encounters with Don Quixote. A Review	237

Please observe references to recent publications pp. S. 210, 248.